"I am currently undertaking an industrial training program with Sqi college of oct, where I am gaining hands-on experience in Ui/ux design. So far, I have had the opportunity to work on projects and have been able to apply my knowledge of figma software to develop solutions for real-world problems. I am also learning from industry experts, who are providing valuable mentorship and guidance. I am excited about the opportunity to learn and grow during this experience and look forward to applying the skills and knowledge gained to my future professional endeavors."
